

THE READING HOSPITAL SCHOOL OF HEALTH SCIENCES POLICY NO. 350

SUBJECT: Tutoring Program

Responsibility of: Coordinator of Student Services
Revised: June 2010 Reviewed: 2011

Purpose

To provide support to students seeking additional learning support in a particular course(s).

The purpose of the tutoring program is to improve study skills and course grades. Participation in the program is optional.

Students who exhibit difficulty in either their specialty or general education studies are encouraged to participate in this program.

Process

1. A student requesting a tutor (hereafter called the tutee) will submit a tutoring request form to the Coordinator of Student Services.
2. The Coordinator of Student Services will check to see if peer tutors have been identified for that course and assist in identifying potential student tutors.
3. The Coordinator of Student Services will request names of potential tutors from the Course Coordinators/faculty in the course.
4. The Coordinator of Student Services will approach recommended students to identify their interest in becoming a tutor.
5. The Coordinator of Student Services will provide a list of potential tutors to the tutee
6. Tutee will contact tutor to schedule an appointment.
7. Tutoring sessions are determined by the tutee's needs and availability of the tutor.
8. Payment for tutoring services is determined by the tutor. The school is not responsible for the financial arrangements between the tutor and tutee. A minimum payment of $10.00 per hour is provided as a suggested guideline for tutoring services. The school will not be engaged in the actual setting of fees, or the collection/payment for service. These decisions are solely the responsibility of the tutor and tutee, and payment shall be made directly from the tutee to the tutor.
9. Additional suggested process:
 - a) Tutee contacts the tutor to request assistance.
 - b) Discuss and agree upon arrangements and payment. A sample tutoring agreement form is available in the Coordinator of Student Services office. It is suggested that the tutor and tutee sign an agreement form for the purpose of providing clear communication and expectations between the two parties.
 - c) Exchange contact information: phone numbers and e-mail addresses.
 - d) It is suggested that tutoring occurs on the school campus, or in a safe public area such as a café, bookstore etc. Avoid arranging sessions in a private home or private location where the safety of either party could be in jeopardy .

- e) It is the tutee's responsibility to notify the tutor of the need to cancel any tutoring appointments. All cancellations should be made four (4) hours before the scheduled tutoring appointment if possible.
- f) Either party may decide to alter or end the agreement at any time, but it is suggested that the notice be provided in writing with 7 days notice.
- g) If a tutee is disruptive during a tutoring session, tutor may request dismissal of tutee from the tutoring session.
- h) Tutees are expected to come to for tutoring sessions with specific questions or problems. The tutor is there to clarify information, answer questions, explain problem-solving methods, and provide similar help. Tutees may not ask the tutor to complete assignments or engage in any activity which could be considered academic dishonesty.
- i) Please contact the Coordinator, Student Services by phone or email at if you have any problems, questions, or suggestions.
- j) It is requested that the tutor provide hours serviced to the Coordinator of Student Services for tracking purposes and recognition.

Note: Availability of tutoring is not guaranteed and is based upon volunteer student tutors.
